

4. The 100% infection is obtained approximately 15 months from the initial inoculation and the 100% mortality is delayed the incubation of approximately 2 months. The 100% infection is obtained approximately 15 months from the initial inoculation and the 100% mortality is delayed the incubation of approximately 2 months. The 100% infection is obtained approximately 15 months from the initial inoculation and the 100% mortality is delayed the incubation of approximately 2 months.